

Colossians: Big Jesus
"A Killer Family"
Colossians 3:5-11

Introduction

Followers of Jesus Christ are part of a family that kills sin together.

What types of sins should God's people kill?

Why should God's people kill sin?

- 1) God's wrath is against sin (v6)
- 2) In Christ, you have a new life now.
- 3) In Christ, you're part of a new community now (v11)

Conclusion

Discussion Questions

Read Colossians 3:5-11.

Are there areas of sin from your past that continue to be present struggles?

What needs to happen for you to break free from these patterns?

What radical tactics might you need to employ to fight temptation and sin?

Who can you be accountable to as you seek to kill sin in your life?

God's new community in Christ is meant to level all status and class distinctions (v15). How does this reality provide a gospel witness to the world around us? How does this type of family differ from other types of community?